

2019 LUNAR SERIES YEAR OF THE PIG

Distributed exclusively by PAMP.

Australian Government
Royal Australian Mint

In commemoration of the 2019 Chinese New Year, the Royal Australian Mint presents the Year of the Pig gold investment series, exclusively distributed by PAMP.

The pig is celebrated by the Chinese for its symbolic properties of compassion, generosity and intelligence, and for its strong association with wealth. The pig is believed to signify a momentous year filled with peace, joy and great financial prosperity. These truly exceptional coins features a richly detailed design crafted in 99.99% fine gold with an uncirculated bullion finish.

SPECIAL FEATURES:

Coins are rendered and struck in high detail by the Royal Australian Mint.

Uniquely suited for both gift-givers and investment enthusiasts alike.

COIN DESIGN:

The reverse design features a richly detailed rendering of a happy and carefree pig at play, as it runs through a puddle of mud, and the Chinese character '猪', which translates as 'pig' in English. The top of the reverse design features the year '2019', while the bottom features the coin's metal weight and fineness.

The obverse features the effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, along with the text 'ELIZABETH II', 'Australia' and the face value of the coin – all of which are encircled by depictions of the 12 signs and moon phases of the Chinese Zodiac.
